Piggy Pact

25 Money Questions for Couples

For your next money date. Pick three, pour something nice, and take turns.

1. What did money feel like in your house growing up?
2. What's one purchase you'll never regret?
3. What does "being good with money" mean to you?
4. What would you do with an extra $1,000 this month?
5. What are we saving for, and why does it matter to each of us?
6. What's a money habit of mine you secretly admire?
7. How much can either of us spend without checking in first?
8. Joint account, separate accounts, or both? Why?
9. How should we split shared costs: 50/50, by income, or another way?
10. What's our plan if one of us loses a job?
11. Is there any debt we haven't talked about?
12. What does a rich life look like for us in 10 years?
13. Where do we want to live, and what will it cost?
14. How do we feel about lending money to family or friends?
15. What's the biggest money mistake you've made, and what did it teach you?
16. What's one thing you'd love to splurge on without guilt?
17. How often should we have a money check-in?
18. What's the next big thing we want to save for together?
19. Are we on the same page about kids, and what they'd cost?
20. When do you want to stop working, and what would that take?
21. What do we give to causes we care about?
22. What's a money worry that keeps you up at night?
23. How do we want to handle gifts for holidays and birthdays?
24. What's one money goal you want to hit this year, just for you?
25. What's one way I can back your goals better?

Saving for something together? There's a free app for that.

Shared goals, friendly challenges, and no bank connection. Your money stays where it is.

piggypact.com